DREYFUS MASS MEETING

Citizens of Washington Denounce the French Republic.

The Verdict Reached at Rennes Conened as Cruel - Resolutions of Sympathy for the Prisoner-A Message to the Convicted Man-Threats to Boycott the Parts Exposition.

A monster indignation meeting to protest against the punishment of Captain of the Captain of our sympothy the Dreyfus was held at Masonic Temple last of our country everywhere, are a unit, a dience which testified to the intense indig-nation which men feel over the result of the Rennes court-martial. Very few ladies were present, but every seat on the plat-form and in the hall was taken. The spec-tators did not hesitate to denounce the French nation and advocate a boycott of the Paris Exposition of 1300.

Franklin H. Mackey called the gathering to order at 8 o'clock and nominated Simon night. The hall was crowded with an auto order at a o'clock and nominated Simon Wolf as chairman of the meeting. Mr. Wolf was unanimously chosen amid applause, and at his request Dr. W. A. Croffut, the Rev. Dr. Samuel S. Domer, pastor of St. Paul's English Lutheran Church; the Rev. C. C. Meador, pastor of the Fifth Baptist Church; John C. Parker, William D. W. Glassie said he came to the meet-H. Miller, and other speakers mounted the stage. A committee was chosen to draft and report resolutions. It consisted of Franklin H. Mackey, John S. Parker, Col. H. G. Worthington, and Louis Baur. Dr. Croffut's Address.

Croffut was then called on to address the meeting and he responded with a vigorous speech, saying that he had only come to the meeting by accident, but, nevertheless, was heartily interested in the purpose of the gathering. "The Drey-fas infamy," said Dr. Croffut, "has been consummated. Dreyfus is no longer on trial Prance has been condemned in the verdist rendered and disgraced before the civilized world. It is France and not Drey-fus that is this week to suffer degradation. It is France that will march in front of the nations, and have her epaulets torn from her shoulders, and her sword broken and tossed to the ground. It is France that has been consigned to the dungeon question that confronts Americans is now this. What is to become of American citi-rans stranded in France this year? What is to become of any American who may be taken into any court in that country? What chance have they of a fair trial in What chance have they of a fair trial in the face of a Mercier and a Roget? In a country where passion, perjury, and believy rule, court jurisdiction ought to be taken by other nations from France. The trial of an American citizen in that country ought to be confined to a consular court. It is the only thing that will ensure fair trial. The verdict in the Breytus affair has produced amazement and con-sternation. We ought to treat France how the same as we do China, Abysinnia, and Zanzibar. France is on the verge of tu-mult," said Dr. Croffut in conclusion, "and o its sober second thought is Resolutions of Sympathy.

Where Heurich's Maerzen Is Sold.

Heurich's Maerzen Beer is only sold where a glass-framed sign, with the words "Maerzen Beer" in gold letters, is displayed. This will be the only infallible evidence to demonstrate to the patrons of Heurich's Maerzen that it is sold on draught or in bottles. Look for this particular sign if you have your doubts what is served you.
